Amend

Joanne Moser moved, in amendment, that Appendix A be approved with the following changes:

- That the grammar errors noted by the Board be corrected,
- That it be noted in the wording of the Written Submission Requirements Policy that it does not apply to simplified appeals,
- That anywhere the words “evidence submission(s)” appears together in the policy, the word “evidence” be removed,
- That the length of appendices requirement be changed to a “request that the submitter try to keep the length of each appendix below 40 pages.”

- That the following definitions be included at the beginning of this policy:
 - I. Evidence - “inter alia” the information, documents, materials, and evidence that the submitting party wishes the Board to consider
 - II. Submission - The written argument in support of your appeal; or response to a written argument from the opposing party
- That the exemption process section be amended to read:
- “Once an exemption has been applied for, the Secretary will supply the Board panel and all parties to the appeal copies of the exemption request and reasoning for the exemption, for the Board panel to rule on admission. Where an exemption is requested, a pre-appeal hearing may be required.”; and
- That a bullet point in the Appendices section be added to specify that there must be an Appendix for Evidence, as defined in this policy, and that it be requested that this Appendix be clearly itemized and labelled.

The amending motion was put and declared CARRIED.
