

Appendix C Regina Police Service Providing Value to Regina Citizens

The Regina Police Service continuously looks to improve its service delivery and measures its performance through established performance indicators. These performance indicators provide internal accountability to the Board of Police Commissioners and external accountability to the citizens of Regina. The following performance indicators are regularly reported to the Board of Police Commissioners:

- Crime rates, crime severity index, and calls for service

The overall level of reported crime has shown a steady decrease since 2007 with an overall reduction of 26% in total crime rate. Crimes Against the Person, Crimes Against Property and other Criminal Code violations have also decreased substantially. Calls for service to the Regina Police Service have remained steady over the ten years.

- Clearance rates

Although the Regina Police Service is a busy organization with a high officer workload, the Service is effective with the second highest clearance rate in Western Canada.

- Per capita authorized strength comparisons

The Regina Police Service is below average for per capita authorized strength.

- Using force and authority fairly, efficiently and effectively

The Service provides the number of complaints against members and use of force information to the Board of Police Commissioners. The number of complaints against members has been decreasing since 2007.

- Response times

The Regina Police Service is meeting its response objectives for priority 1, 2 and 3 calls.
