The Regina Public Library

The Regina Public Library (RPL) leases locations at 331 Albert Street Regina, SK and 2715 Gordon Road Regina, SK. The properties are owned by Melcor Developments Ltd. and Gordon Road Property Holdings Inc., respectively.

The locations are known as Plan: 68R23751 Block: 17 Lot: 1 & 2 as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10017267 - 303 Albert Street and Plan: 66R13992 Block: M; Plan: 78R20752 Block: Q; Plan: 101145710 Block: N as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10065624 - 2715 Gordon Road.

Council has approved exemptions for the Regina Public Library for the past several years through the annual exemption bylaw process.

The Regina Public Library meets all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(e) applies – “they would receive a statutory exemption as per subsections 262 (j) or (p) of The Cities Act if the organization owned the building or land.” Administration is recommending approval of the property tax exemption for 2020.

Royal Canadian Legion Regina Branch # 001

The Royal Canadian Legion was formed in 1926, the first branch to receive its charter - Branch 001. The Legion offers many services to veterans, serving military, RCMP members and their families. Some of the services include seniors support, housing and care for elderly, drop-in centres, Cadets, youth and sport programs just to name a few.

Up until November 2012, the Royal Canadian Legion Regina Branch 001 (Legion) was exempt under The Cities Act subsection 262(1)(p)(i) as the property was owned and used by the Legion. In November of 2012 the Legion sold the property to 1820 Cornwall Street Properties Ltd (Owners) at which time the property became taxable.

As part of the original sale the new Owners and the Legion entered into a five-year lease agreement. A condition of the lease was that the Legion was not responsible for property taxes for the five-year term. In 2018, the Owners of the property and the Legion entered into a new lease, which now requires the Legion to pay the property taxes for the portion of the property they occupy. As a result, the Legion has also requested a cancellation of the 2018 property taxes.

The Legion currently leases a portion (25.34%) of the property. The exemption would apply to the portion of the property utilized by the Legion. The location is known as 1820 Cornwall Street; Plan: 00RA12095, Block: 308; Lot: 42; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10032641.

Council has approved an exemption for the Royal Canadian Legion for 2019 through the annual exemption bylaw process.

The Royal Canadian Legion Regina Branch #001 meets all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(e) applies – “they would receive a statutory exemption as per subsections 262 (j) or (p) of The Cities Act if the organization owned the building or land.” Administration is recommending approval of the property tax exemption for 2020. Administration is also recommending the cancellation of the 2018 property tax levies as listed above.

Community Gardens

The Community Gardens occupy land owned by exempt entities, the City of Regina or the University of Regina. If the land was not occupied by a garden, the owner of the land would be required to maintain the land and the property would not generate property tax revenue. Council has approved exemptions for the community gardens for the past several years through the annual exemption bylaw process.

The Community Gardens meet all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(b) applies – “supports community gardens on public lands.” Administration is recommending approval of property tax exemptions in 2020 for the following Community Associations Gardens:

- Al Ritchie Community Association Inc Gardens

Al Ritchie Community Association Inc. advocates on behalf of the community and helps to serve its social and community needs, priorities, goals and activities through interaction with the community. The association operates with the philosophy that residents know what kind of programming they need and want.

They maintain and operate two community gardens located at the lands described below:

- A-1109 E – 14th Avenue; Plan: 70R04472 Block: R1; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10305759

- 2029 Forget Street; Plan: I 5211 Block: 32 Lot: 16; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10035872
- 2055 Forget Street; Plan: I 5211 Block: 32 Lot: 11-15; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10035871

- Dewdney East Community Association Incorporated Gardens

Dewdney East Community Association Incorporated’s vision is to make this community one of Regina’s most inclusive and safe neighbourhoods, where the well being of the individual and the community are the priority by providing a variety of programs at reasonable costs to members of the community. Their mission is to build community partnerships that will improve the quality of life through public engagement, proactive governance and equal representation of Dewdney East Community Association.

The community association operates a community garden at the location known as:

- A-1197 Park Street; Plan: 65R40289 Block: 24 Lot: B; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10305757.

- Grow Regina Community Gardens Incorporated Gardens

Grow Regina Community Gardens Incorporated is a volunteer group with a mandate to enhance the social, economics and cultural well-being of Regina residents through community gardening. Grow Regina exists to operate and promote community gardens as a healthy source of fresh vegetables and a place where people come together to build community. Each annual general meeting, the current season's gardeners elect a dozen members to a volunteer Board which takes responsibility of the safe and efficient operation of the gardens.

The location of the gardens is known as:

- 3500 Queen Street; Plan: 60R07552 Block: R2; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10049337.

- Queen City Eastview Community Association Incorporated Gardens

Queen City Eastview Community Association Incorporated's general purpose is to ensure that the community of Eastview is a safe, clean and healthy environment for the benefit of its residents and the community-at-large.

The community association operates a community garden at the location known as:

- A-615 - 6th Avenue; Plan: F1625 Block: B; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No. 10305756.

- West Zone Community Gardens

The Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Incorporated

The Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Inc. is an organization in the process of building a religious institution, which will be exempt from property taxes through legislation in The Cities Act. Along with the application for 2020 property tax exemption, the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Inc has also requested cancellation of the 2019 property taxes.

The location is known as 641 E Victoria Avenue; Plan: 70R13525 Blk: A; Plan: DV 270 Blk: 38 Lot: 21-34/ Blk: 38B Lot: 7-20/ Blk: Y; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10039677.

In the past Council has approved exemptions on land owned by religious organizations while facility is under construction.

The Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Inc. meet all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(f) applies. This principle is to support organizations such as churches where the legislative requirement is for the organization to own and occupy in order to be exempt. Administration is recommending the Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Inc receive an exemption while developing plans and constructing facility. The Islamic Association of Saskatchewan, Regina Inc has demolished the original building on the land in preparation of the future build and has advised that the expected construction completion will be in 3 years.

Administration is recommending the approval of the property tax exemption for 2020. Administration is also recommending the cancellation of the pro-rated 2019 property tax levies as listed above.

Young Women’s Christian Association

The Young Women’s Christian Association (YWCA) is exempt through legislation in The Cities Act when the facility is complete and fully operational. Currently the property is owned by the City of Regina and therefore exempt. Once the property transfers into the YWCA’s name the property becomes taxable for the duration of construction. The ownership transfer is expected to be completed before the end of 2019.

The YWCA has also requested cancellation of the portion of the 2019 property taxes once ownership transfers to the organization.

The new facility will take up two current property tax accounts the first being 1915 Retallack Street; Plan: 101887623 Block: 339 Lot: A; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10101336. The second property tax account is 1955 Retallack Street; Plan: 101887623 Block: 339 Lot: B; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10101337.

In the past Council has approved exemptions on land owned by religious organizations while facility is under construction.

The YWCA meets all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(f) applies. ### The Regina Education and Action on Child Hunger

The Regina Education and Action on Child Hunger (REACH) was formed as a community response to the Mayor’s Board of Inquiry into Hunger (1989) and the University of Regina’s Nutricare report (1990). These reports identified the children of Regina as being particularly vulnerable to hunger and malnutrition and recommended that an organization coordinate and support the child feeding programs of the day. REACH incorporated in 1990 as a non-profit, charitable organization.

REACH defines food security as an environment where all persons within a community are able to obtain a safe, nutritionally adequate, culturally acceptable diet through non-emergency sources. Their food security initiatives provide viable options and choices for all residents of all ages of Regina to increase the quality and quantity of their food and build food skills through community cooperation, and shared interests by providing opportunities to be self-reliant and to enhance their health through the various food security initiatives. The property is known as 1308 Winnipeg Street; Plan: 67R03593 Block: C; as described on the Assessment Roll Account No.10115555 - B1250 Winnipeg Street.

Council has approved an exemption for the Regina Education and Action on Child Hunger for the past several years through the annual exemption bylaw process.

Regina Education and Action on Child Hunger meets all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(c) applies – “supports communities to create collaborative strategies to address hunger and food security through education and training for marginalized communities.” Administration is recommending approval of the property tax exemption for 2020.

The Art Gallery of Regina

The Art Gallery of Regina is located at 2420 Elphinstone Street and is an occupant of a City of Regina property. They are an independent, non-profit, public gallery featuring contemporary artwork with an emphasis on Saskatchewan artists. They also offer public education programs, informational and hands on workshops, lectures, visiting artist events, and demonstrations. The gallery opened as an experimental satellite of the Norman Mackenzie Gallery in 1974 under the name Rosemont Art Gallery. Its objective was to reach new audiences and respond to community demands for more local and regional programming.

In 1976 an independent organization formed and incorporated as a non-profit society to take over the gallery. In 2005, after 30 years in operation, the name was changed to the Art Gallery of Regina to better reflect the scope of the organization and its role in the community. The location of the property is known as 2420 Elphinstone Street; Plan: K 4654 Block: B & C; DV 4420 Block: C; as described on the Assessment Roll as Account No.10065459.

Council has approved an exemption for the Art Gallery of Regina for the past several years through the annual exemption bylaw process.

The Art Gallery of Regina meets all principles of CNPTEP. Under principle 3, criteria 3.1(a) applies – “operates as a sport, culture, recreation, arts or heritage organization in a single facility that is delivering a service that is not provided by another organization in the city and: (i) are able, often because they are purpose-built or retrofitted, to deliver a unique collection of programs that would not be possible in another space; or (ii) are positioned strategically within the city to enhance the activation of key institutional, recreation and economic hubs, such as in Wascana Centre and in downtown Regina.” Administration is recommending approval of the property tax exemption for 2020.
