Re: Homicide Investigation

RECOMMENDATION

1. That the Board of Police Commissioners offer a reward of $25,000.00 for information leading to the arrest and conviction of the person(s) responsible for the death of Adisalam Dahir Nur.
2. That the reward expire December 31, 2018.

CONCLUSION

The Regina Police Service is investigating a homicide which occurred on August 5, 2016. The investigation will continue until all investigative avenues have been exhausted.

BACKGROUND

Abdisalam Dahir Nur was involved in a violent drug network. On August 5, 2016, the body of Abdisalam Dahir Nur was discovered at the address of 2065 McDonald Street. The victim was also known by the names "Dame" or "Damien". Abdisalam Nur was of Somalia descent living in Edmonton, Alberta, at the time of his death. He was in Regina only a short period of time before he was murdered at 2065 McDonald Street.

Witnesses at the time of the murder described seeing two males flee from the rear of 2065 McDonald Street and drive away in what was described as a red Jeep or SUV, possibly with an Alberta license plate.

DISCUSSION

The Regina Police Service continues to hold the murder of Abdisalam Dahir Nur as a priority. The investigation has been ongoing since August 5, 2016. Two members of the Major Crime Unit are actively investigating the murder of Abdisalam Dahir Nur.

Persons of interest have been identified and all leads are followed up on as they are received by police; however, several investigative avenues have been exhausted. The investigators believe there are individuals who know who was involved and what actually took place at 2065 McDonald Street prior to Abdisalam Dahir Nur being murdered there. Investigators believe a reward may stimulate someone to come forward with the crucial information necessary to bring this investigation to a successful conclusion.

RECOMMENDATION IMPLICATIONS

Financial Implications

The Regina Police Service will not specifically set aside $25,000 in the 2018 budget to cover the expense of a claimed reward. If a reward is claimed, the Regina Police Service will make every effort to manage the expenditure within the 2018 budget.

Environmental Implications

None with respect to this report.

Strategic Implications

The reward may elicit information to identify those responsible for the death of Adisalam Dahir Nur.

Other Implications

Reward Guidelines:

- If you have information regarding this investigation, contact the Regina Police Service, Major Crimes Unit.
- In order to qualify for the reward, the Regina Police Service requires persons to provide their name and address and a complete statement of their knowledge of the case to investigators. They may be required to testify. No confidentiality can be offered.
- In the event of an arrest, you may choose to file a claim for the reward. If you do so, you must file a claim by letter addressed to the Chief of Police, 1717 Osler Street, Regina, Saskatchewan, S4P 3W3. You may choose to mail it via regular mail or courier. Please ensure you keep a dated copy of your claim letter and any receipts.
- Upon completion of the case in court where a conviction occurs, the Regina Police Service Board of Police Commissioners and the Chief of Police at their sole discretion will determine the portion of the reward to be paid to any claimant(s). Only persons who have filed a claim to the reward will be considered.

COMMUNICATIONS

The continued $25,000 reward will be communicated on the Regina Police Service website and through other media sources.

Chief Evan Bray

Dear Chief Bray:

Thank you for the generous offering of your boardroom on Thursday, September 21, 2017. Establishing and maintaining partnerships with community stakeholders like the Regina City Police is a priority for the Ministry of Justice. During this time of fiscal restraint, locating an affordable meeting space to conduct workshops is particularly challenging.

Offering your boardroom allowed our working group the space to make some advances on a project addressing offender transportation in our province. While this plan does not currently have membership from the Regina Police Service, management of offenders is a shared interest of both our agencies. The use of your boardroom was an especially good reminder of the value of the partnership our Ministry has with the Regina Police Service.

I also wanted to extend my gratitude to Gerard Kay for his professionalism and support in ensuring all considerations were made in advance to support the workshop event possible including security passes, parking and IT support. I look forward to working with your team again in the future.

Sincerely,

Michelle Schwartz

Subject: Thank you for Being There for Kids

Hello Marie,

It was a pleasure having members of the Regina Police Service join us again this year for the 19th annual Being There for Kids Breakfast.

In 2016, mental health and well-being were the most commonly discussed challenges between our professional counsellors and young people in Saskatchewan. From stress to bullying to thoughts of suicide, nothing is off limits when they connect with our service through live chat or by phone. Young people tell us that they can share anything with our counsellors, no matter how big or small, whenever they need to without fear of judgement.

Please accept our most sincere gratitude for your ongoing support of Kids Help Phone, it is crucial as we continue to raise awareness and funds to provide our service. Your contribution to the Being There for Kids Breakfast enables us to work towards our mission of being always open, providing a safe and trusted place for young people, in any moment of crisis or need.

Thank you for being part of this annual event and supporting Kids Help Phone.

Sincerely,
Jessica

to the Regina Police Service.

Message Body:

To Whom it May Concern,

I called 911 yesterday to report my child missing. I cannot say enough good things about the dispatcher who took my call, Marion from Reporting who helped me make my Missing Persons file, and the two officers who came to my house to help me locate my daughter.

On the most traumatic day of my life, all these people were here for me. The 911 dispatcher helped me stay calm because she was so calm and reassured me that police were on their way. Marion from Reporting, was calm and confident that we would find my daughter soon, which in turn made me calm and more sure that we would find her. And the 2 officers who came to help (I'm so sorry, I didn't get their names) were swift and non-judgemental about my plight. As I'm sure most parents feel when they lose their child, I felt like the worst mother and the female officer reassured me that they frequently get calls like this.

In total, my daughter was missing for 25 minutes. The longest and most painful 25 minutes of my life. And I have all of the above people to thank for helping me find my daughter. I am beyond grateful and I just wanted to take a minute to commend the Regina Police Service for your tireless work and protection you provide to our city. Please make sure that all of the people involved know just how thankful I am, if at all possible.

Most Sincerely,

Amber Wall-Charleson

Regina, SK S4P 2Z8

Dear Constable Longhurst,

On behalf of AIDS Programs South Saskatchewan, we would like to take this opportunity to thank the Regina Police Service for essorting our walk and helping to make the Scotiabank AIDS Walk such an outstanding success.

The Sociabank AIDS Walk is an annual, national event held in over 47 communities across Canada. This is Canada's most important HIV/AIDS fundraising and awareness event that strives to educate Canadians about the social, cultural, and economic issues surrounding HIV/AIDS in their communities. All proceeds stay in the community where they are raised, and help fund programs and services that directly benefit people living with or affected by HIV/AIDS.

This year, the event raised over $13,700, which was double our goal!

For over 30 years, AIDS Programs South Saskatchewan (APSS) has been helping men, women and children living with HIV/AIDS. We are a community-based non-profit registered charitable organization. Our goal is to provide those living with HIV/AIDS and Hepatitis C (HCV) and those at risk of contracting the disease, with relevant and current information and support services. Saskatchewan continues to experience the highest rate of HIV infection in Canada at triple the national average according to our Health Statistics.

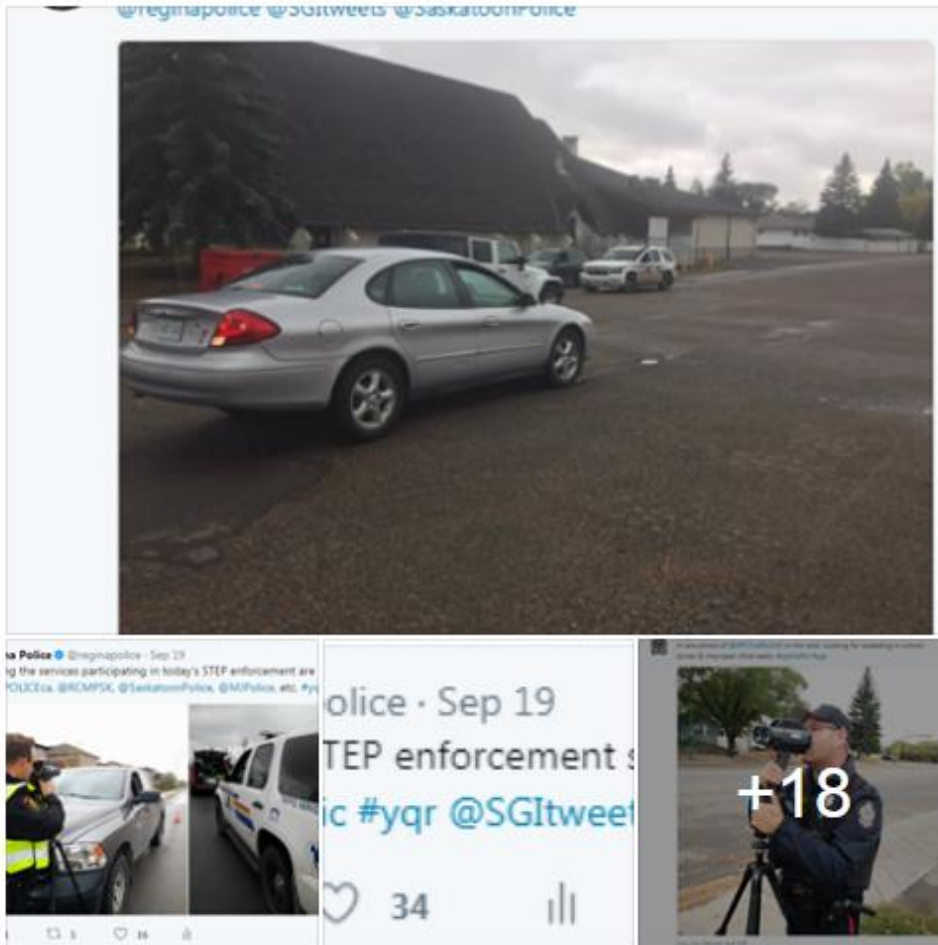

Thank you again for your commitement to the Scotiabank AIDS Walk. We hope that the Regina Police Service will support the event again next year!

Sophie Pitman
Program Coordinator
AIDS Programs South Saskatchewan

*Cory,
Thank you for the professional in service you provided for this community event! It was clearly noticed & appreciated by the organizers and those involved!
Keep up the great work!*

Santana Sherring I was pulled over this morning and I just wanted to say thanks for making the process quick and painless. & a huge thanks to the ladies from SGI for educating me on things I didn't know were unsafe. If you have nothing to hide the process isn't a pain at all.

A couple members in DEVRS (reporting) and Comm Centre (9-1-1 dispatch) received flowers and a thank you note for their help on a recent call. Their calming voices and quick action from our officers made for a quick and painless incident, with a happy citizen in the end. Just doing our jobs 😊

A reminder to students, staff & parents in the Regina school system:

We have School Resource Officers (SROs) who attend the schools to help youth with issues and mediation with incidents. They are friendly and always there to help. They are also there to help teach kids about safety and what it's like to be a police officer. (PS they give great high fives!)

Dear Regina,

It's dry here. It's dry everywhere in #sask. (Except #yxe...lucky them) We know the weather forecast is calling for rain tomorrow, but no offense to the weather folks, the weather can change and the prediction could be wrong (we hope it's not). Still, we need to "butt out" a little issue...

Please don't drop your cigarette butts just anywhere. Use the provided containers for disposing of the butts. Otherwise, you might get a fine (or worse, start a fire). Let's keep the city clean AND safe.

Under the Traffic Safety Act:

Littering on highway prohibited

249(1) No person shall put on a highway any nails, tacks, glass or other material that might destroy or cause damage to the tires of a vehicle.

(2) No person shall throw or drop from a vehicle on a highway a burning match, burning ashes of a pipe, a lighted cigar or cigarette or any other burning substance.

Thought I would give everyone a little insight on a Impaired Driver we arrested this morning. @reginapolice #pleasestop

Today was one of those days. Just finished with an Impaired Driver who blew 340/320mg% (4 times the legal limit). This driver was trying to drive their kids to school. Impaired driving kills, destroys lives and is 100% preventable. It needs to stop... what is it going to take???

I don't have the answer... I wish I did. I fear that people won't get the message until it hits too close to home, but by then it's too late.
