Technical difficulties arose at the start of the meeting with respect to citizen members attending via videoconference and quorum could not be achieved. Once those difficulties were resolved, all members were in attendance, in person or via videoconference.

When the meeting commenced and the Chair asked for a motion to approve the agenda, it was determined that all Commission members and members of Administration attending via videoconference were unable to access their microphones. After efforts to resolve the problem were not successful the Chairperson concluded the meeting could not be conducted properly, cancelled the meeting and asked the Secretary to reschedule the meeting to a new date.

Agenda items were not dealt with at the meeting and were deemed to be tabled to the rescheduled meeting of Regina Planning Commission, to be determined.
