

Appendix A -3

Qualifications and Competencies of Police Commission Members

Toronto

Qualifications

- An interest in, and commitment to, public safety and responsible police governance
- An understanding of the police community, its values and its needs
- Superior skills in leadership and management
- Administrative and budgetary experience
- Dedication to public service and the community
- Skills in conflict management, negotiation and mediation
- An ability to set organization goals and priorities
- A flexible schedule to meet time commitments of the position